

IOWANS OVERWHELMINGLY SUPPORT FARMERS' ACCESS TO CROP PROTECTION TOOLS

The public has major concerns about the growing impact of litigation on food security and inflation

Modern Ag Alliance's inaugural sentiment survey confirms that Iowans strongly support maintaining farmers' access to critical crop protection products like glyphosate. This support extends across party lines, with majorities of Republicans and Democrats siding with farmers on nearly every question asked. Trial lawyers, who are driving American agriculture toward a crisis by attacking farmers' tools, have extremely low levels of trust among Iowans. Meanwhile, farmers enjoy high levels of public trust.

KEY SURVEY FINDINGS:

Iowans strongly oppose litigation that could limit farmers' access to critical crop protection tools

94% of farmers and 71% of all Iowans, including 74% of Republicans and 76% of Democrats, oppose litigation that could limit access to crop protection products.

94% of farmers and 81% of all Iowans, including 84% of Republicans and 84% of Democrats, support science-based policies for crop protection tools.

Iowa farmers overwhelmingly depend on crop protection tools to stay competitive

88% of farmers say crop protection products prevent crop loss and that restrictions on these tools would negatively impact their farms.

88% of farmers say pesticides make farming less expensive.

In Iowa, people trust farmers, not trial lawyers

75% of Iowans trust local farmers, including 83% of Republicans and 69% of Democrats.

Only 13% of Iowans trust trial lawyers, including 13% of Republicans and 16% of Democrats.

Iowans are deeply concerned that litigation will undermine domestic agricultural supply chains and U.S. food security

74% of farmers and 68% of all Iowans, including 72% of Republicans and 63% of Democrats, worry that litigation will increase U.S. reliance on foreign suppliers, threatening U.S. food security.

Serious concern exists that litigation attacks on crop protection tools will result in higher food prices

92% of farmers and 73% of all Iowans, including 75% of Republicans and 73% of Democrats, are concerned that litigation will lead to lower crop yields and higher food prices.

Iowans want leaders who stand with farmers over trial lawyers

96% of farmers and 86% of all Iowans, including 89% of Republicans and 83% of Democrats, are more likely to support leaders who stand with farmers over trial lawyers.

A BIPARTISAN MAJORITY OF IOWANS AGREE: STAND WITH FARMERS AND PREVENT A CRISIS FUELED BY TRIAL LAWYERS— ONE THAT THREATENS THEIR LIVELIHOODS AND PUTS OUR FOOD SUPPLY AT RISK.

Methodology: This survey was written and administered by Penta Group Intelligence, an independent research firm. The results are based on a representative sample of 500 online and phone interviews of Iowa-based adults and 50 Iowan farmers. The study also surveyed a national representative sample of 1,005 US adults and 550 additional farmers from 11 states. The study was conducted January 29 through February 18, 2025. The margin of error for the Iowans adult population is +/-4.38.
