

KANSANS OVERWHELMINGLY SUPPORT FARMERS' ACCESS TO CROP PROTECTION TOOLS

The public has major concerns about the growing impact of litigation on food security and inflation

Modern Ag Alliance's inaugural sentiment survey confirms that Kansans strongly support maintaining farmers' access to critical crop protection products like glyphosate. This support extends across party lines, with majorities of Republicans and Democrats siding with farmers on nearly every question asked. Trial lawyers, who are driving American agriculture toward a crisis by attacking farmers' tools, have extremely low levels of trust among Kansans. Meanwhile, farmers enjoy high levels of public trust.

KEY SURVEY FINDINGS:

Kansans strongly oppose litigation that could limit farmers' access to critical crop protection tools

92% of farmers and 74% of all Kansans, including 81% of Republicans and 77% of Democrats, oppose litigation that could limit access to crop protection products.

100% of farmers and 83% of all Kansans, including 84% of Republicans and 89% Democrats, support science-based policies for crop protection tools.

Kansas farmers overwhelmingly depend on crop protection tools to stay competitive

96% of farmers say crop protection products prevent crop loss and that restrictions on these tools would negatively impact their farms.

96% of farmers say pesticides make farming less expensive.

In Kansas, people trust farmers, not trial lawyers

77% of Kansans trust local farmers, including 81% of Republicans and 75% of Democrats.

Only 14% of Kansans trust trial lawyers, including 15% of Republicans and 15% of Democrats.

Kansans are deeply concerned that litigation will undermine domestic agricultural supply chains and U.S. food security

84% of farmers and 67% of all Kansans, including 67% of Republicans and 75% of Democrats, worry that litigation will increase U.S. reliance on foreign suppliers, threatening U.S. food security.

Serious concern exists that litigation attacks on crop protection tools will result in higher food prices

88% of farmers and 74% of all Kansans, including 74% of Republicans and 75% of Democrats, are concerned that litigation will lead to lower crop yields and higher food prices.

Kansans want leaders who stand with farmers over trial lawyers

100% of farmers and 87% of all Kansans, including 89% of Republicans and 90% of Democrats, are more likely to support leaders who stand with farmers over trial lawyers.

A BIPARTISAN MAJORITY OF KANSANS AGREE: STAND WITH FARMERS AND PREVENT A CRISIS FUELED BY TRIAL LAWYERS— ONE THAT THREATENS THEIR LIVELIHOODS AND PUTS OUR FOOD SUPPLY AT RISK.

Methodology: This survey was written and administered by Penta Group Intelligence, an independent research firm. The results are based on a representative sample of 500 online and phone interviews of Kansas-based adults and 50 Kansan farmers. The study also surveyed a national representative sample of 1,005 US adults and 550 additional farmers from 11 states. The study was conducted January 29 through February 18, 2025. The margin of error for the Kansas adult population is +/-4.38.
